

Whidbey News-Times

Wednesday, March 24, 1999

Young Oak Harbor violinists to perform with symphony

By June Vigor

Two teenage violinists from Oak Harbor - brother and sister Dan Girdner, 17, and Dianthe Girdner, 19, - will be part of the Seattle Symphony for a day.

The two will play with the orchestra in one of its rare Whidbey Island concerts on Friday, March 26, in Langley.

The young musicians will play the Overture to Mozart's Marriage of Figaro under guest conductor Zdenek Macal, after one rehearsal at Benaroya Hall.

The two were chosen at the recommendation of their former teacher, Linda Good, of Langley.